

NATIONAL SCHOOL WINE COMPETITION

Prize Schedule | Competition Information

1 - 10 September 2017 theshow.com.au

NATIONAL SCHOOL WINE COMPETITION

The RA&HS aims to establish this competition and seminar as an annual event to lift the profile of those schools that make wine, enable the school's wines to be judged by a professional judging panel, promote the vocations of viticulture and wine making and be an educational experience for the students involved.

The establishment of the Australian Schools Wine Competition as a section of the Royal Adelaide Wine Show will raise the profile of the wine industry within schools across South Australia and Australia. The judging of a red and white wine and wine labels by a Royal Adelaide Wine Show panel will be an excellent education experience for the schools and give them feedback on the quality of their wines and how they might be evolved. The presentation by a Wine Committee member that explains the judging process and the viewing of the wines being judged will also be an excellent experience for the students.

LABELLING

The object of the labelling award is to recognise and reward excellence in the design and visual quality of the label working in conjunction with the other components as a marketable product.

The winning entries will clearly convey all mandatory product information and regulations.

The label should be attached to a bottle with cap but need not have contents.

The label does not need to be commercially printed but should be reproduced in good quality digital print on label stock.

Entries will be judged on the following criteria:

1. Overall originality & creativity
2. Use of Typography
3. Use of Graphics
4. Overall package appearance

Any enhancements such as texturing, embossing and varnish effects will be taken into account.

Label regulations can be accessed from: www.wineaustralia.com – (Search ‘Wine labelling’ for “Wine Australia Compliance Guide” scroll to Food Standard Code 4.5.1).

Labels are to be designed wholly by students. We require 2 labels (only 1 attached to bottle) and a brief description of the design and the name/s of the designers.
